Applicability of these regulations.
Amended by:
L.N. 157 of 2018.

3. (1) These regulations shall apply where a notary is deemed, in terms of article 84C(5) of the Act, to have been instructed by the transferee to examine title.

(2) These regulations shall also apply where a notary is, in terms of article 84C(4) of the Act, instructed by a contract of engagement to examine title.

(3) These regulations may be modified:

- (a) by means of the contract of engagement referred to in sub-regulation (2); or
- (b) by means of a contract of engagement where, in the case referred to in sub-regulation (1), the notary and the transferee choose to enter into such contract;
- (c) by an agreement in writing entered into between the Notary and the transferee or by a written declaration signed by the transferee, which written agreement or declaration may be recorded in the relative notarial act;

When the agreement to modify these regulations reached between the notary and the client in the manner stipulated in this sub-regulation is not recorded in the relative notarial act, the contract of engagement, the written agreement referred to in this sub-regulation, or the transferee's written declaration shall be retained by the Notary for five years from the date of signing or, if consequent to the examination of title a notarial act is published in terms of article 84C(5) or (6) of the Act, from the date of its publication.

Exemptions.
Amended by:
L.N. 157 of 2018.

4. A notary shall ipso iure be exempt from examining the title to an immovable which is the subject-matter of any of the following acts he publishes:

- (a) a donation made between persons related to each other by consanguinity or affinity in the direct line to any degree and, or to their respective spouses, and in the collateral line up to the third degree inclusively and, or to their relative spouses;

- (b) the constitution of the right of usufruct, use or habitation between any of the persons mentioned in paragraph (a);
- (c) a transfer ordered by a competent Court or tribunal;
- (d) an acquisition under any title from the Government of Malta or the Church, whatever the root of title;
- (e) an acquisition under any title from the Housing Authority or other body established by law, whatever the root of title;
- (f) an acquisition under any title, whatever the root of title, by the Government of Malta, by any corporate body established by law or, as may be authorized in each case by the Minister responsible for notarial affairs in terms of article 22(3) of the Act, by any partnership or any other body in which the Government of Malta or any such corporate body as aforesaid has a controlling interest or over which they have effective control;
- (g) an acquisition of the perpetual directum dominium;
- (h) a partition;
- (i) an assignment between spouses consequent to the termination of the community of acquests even where the assignment includes immovables which did not form part of the community of acquests.

5. (1) A notary shall not be responsible to examine the title to an immovable for the benefit of a creditor who is a party to a notarial act and in whose favour either a special privilege arises over such immovable or a special hypothec is constituted thereon. Creditors.

(2) Such creditor shall have the right to instruct the notary publishing the act to examine the title to such immovable by a contract of engagement and, to the extent that these regulations are not modified, they shall apply to such contract of engagement.

(3) A notary shall not enter into a contract of engagement with a creditor if the notary is deemed to have been instructed to examine title by the transferee in terms of the Act and these regulations or if the notary has entered into a contract of engagement with the transferee to examine title to the same immovable.

6. (1) The documents to be compiled for the examination of title shall consist of the following: Searches.

- (a) official searches in terms of regulations 7 and 8;
- (b) official testamentary search in terms of regulation 11;
- (c) copy of the acts inter vivos and wills, extracts therefrom and declarations in terms of regulation 16; and

- (d) any other copy of a document or a plan to which these regulations refer as forming part of the searches.

(2) The documents compiled in terms of this regulation shall collectively be referred to as the searches.

(3) The searches shall cover the prescriptive period in terms of regulation 18(2)(a).

Public Registry.
Amended by:
L.N. 157 of 2018.
 S.L. 56.03

S.L. 56.03

7. (1) Saving the provisions of these regulations, an official Public Registry search which is not in terms of the Public Registry (Inspection and Searches) Regulations, shall be excluded from the scope of these regulations:

Provided that a notary who, in the following instances, relies on a Public Registry search, shall be considered to have acted with due diligence for the purposes of the Act and these regulations even where, in terms of the Public Registry (Inspection and Searches) Regulations the search is not considered to be official. The instances are the following:

- (a) those relative to a particular town or village, and
- (b) those where the different maternity of the person about whom the search is being conducted has been excluded.

The notary shall inform the transferee of the limitations of such search and the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 shall be observed.

(2) A notary who makes an online update of an official search shall be considered to have acted with due diligence for the purposes of the Act and these regulations even where, in terms of the Public Registry (Inspection and Searches) Regulations the online update is not considered to be official:

Provided that for the time that online searches are not guaranteed by the Public Registry, an online updating shall not be carried out for any period exceeding ninety days.

(3) A notary shall ensure that the official Public Registry search be updated officially up to not more than thirty days prior to the date of publication of the notarial act, unless he chooses to update it through an online search, in which case he shall update the search up to not more than seven days prior to the date of publication of the notarial act.

- (4) (a) A notary shall not be responsible beyond what transpires from the Public Registry official search.
- (b) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of paragraph (a), a notary shall not be responsible for any error or omission in the Public Registry official search itself, whether this results from an error or omission in the official list of numbers, or an error in the contents of a note referred to in the official list of numbers, or an error or omission in the online data the notary has downloaded.

(5) Where there is a discrepancy between an official Public Registry search and a copy of a notarial act forming part of the searches, because -

- (a) a note of enrolment, a note of hypothec (including privilege) or a note of reference (including one of total cancellation, reduction, assignment, postponement or subrogation) referring to such act is for any reason not included in the official list of numbers; or
- (b) the contents of a note is in conflict with the contents of the corresponding notarial act, the notary shall inform the transferee and shall advise him on the course of action he could take, including the possibility of referring such transferee to take further independent legal advice.

8. (1) Saving the provisions of these regulations, a Land Registry official search that is not in terms of the Land Registry Rules shall be excluded from the scope of these regulations.

Land Registry.
Amended by:
L.N. 157 of 2018.
S.L. 296.01

(2) For the purpose of these regulations, the Land Registry official search shall be issued not more than four months prior to the date of publication of the notarial act.

- (3) (a) A notary shall not be responsible beyond what transpires from the Land Registry official search.
- (b) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a), a notary shall not be responsible for any error or omission in such official search, whatever the reason.

(4) Where there is a conflict between the Land Registry official search and a copy of a notarial act which forms part of the searches, the notary shall inform the transferee and shall advise him on the course of action he could take, including the possibility of referring such transferee to take further independent legal advice.

(5) Where there is a manifest discrepancy between a plan in the Land Registry official search and a plan submitted to a notary by the transferee, or one which is annexed to a copy of a notarial act which forms part of the searches, the notary shall advise the transferee to seek the services of an architect on the course of action the transferee could take.

9. (1) Where the immovable devolved on the transferor by testate succession, the testamentary search shall form part of the searches.

Testate succession.
Amended by:
L.N. 157 of 2018.

(2) The provisions of sub-regulation (1) shall likewise apply to all transmissions within the prescriptive period.

(3) Where the succession is governed by a will executed abroad, it shall be the responsibility of the transferor to provide the notary with a copy of the all documents relative to the last testamentary dispositions of the testator, and such documents shall form part of the searches.

- (4) Where the succession of any of the transferor's predecessors in title within the prescriptive period is governed by a will executed abroad, the notary shall rely on the declarations made in previous notarial acts relative to the immovable being transferred and, or any relevant document available in Malta and obtainable with due diligence by the notary.

(5) The notary shall not be responsible if the documents supplied to him or obtained by him are erroneous or misleading, unless there are compelling reasons for him to believe this to be the case.

(6) The notary shall mention all the relevant facts to the transferee.

Intestate succession.

10. Where the immovable has devolved by intestate succession on the transferor or on any of his predecessors in title within the prescriptive period:

- (a) the provisions of regulation 9 shall mutatis mutandis apply; and
- (b) a Court decree declaring open the succession of the person from whom the immovable devolved shall form part of the searches, unless at least one of the transferors provides an affidavit of the family tree in which case the affidavit shall form part of the searches instead of the decree:

Provided that the provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to the predecessors in title of the transferor in the case where the immovable had devolved by intestate succession on any such predecessor in title prior to the coming into force of these regulations.

Testamentary search.

11. A testamentary search consists of the official extract of the Act of Death, the official search relative to secret wills issued by the Civil Court (Voluntary Jurisdiction Section), the official search relative to public wills issued by the Public Registry including a copy of the relative notes of enrolment, and, saving the provisions of regulation 16, it includes an authenticated copy of the will governing the succession, if any.

Emphyteutical concessions.
Amended:

12. (1) Where the immovable is subject to an emphyteutical concession to which there is an exact reference in the Public Registry official search within the prescriptive period or to which there is an exact reference in the Land Registry official search, the notary shall check the terms and conditions of such concession, if the original act or register thereof is available.

(2) Where an exact reference to the emphyteutical concession does not result from the Public Registry official search within the prescriptive period or from the Land Registry official search, the notary shall not be bound to carry out a Public Registry official search beyond the prescriptive period in order to trace the emphyteutical concession and peruse its terms and conditions, but the notary shall be bound to inform the transferee that it is advisable to obtain a copy of the act of emphyteutical concession.

- 13. A notary's responsibility for the examination of title shall be limited to what results from the searches, and shall be subject to any disclaimer or limitation agreed upon in a contract of engagement, or as may result in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3.
- 14. A notary shall not be responsible for a registration of an immovable made by the Land Registrar in the name of an Ecclesiastical Entity or of the Government of Malta in terms of the Ecclesiastical Entities (Properties) Act if, pursuant to an application for its first registration or dealing therewith lodged in the Land Registry by the Joint Office in the name of the Ecclesiastical Entity or of the Government of Malta as the case may be, the Land Registrar registers the immovable or the dealing less than four months prior to the date of publication of the notarial act, notwithstanding that in terms of the aforesaid law the date of registration is deemed to be a date earlier than the date when such application was lodged.
- 15. (1) Unless information is available from the searches, a notary shall not be bound to verify:
- (a) whether a ground rent burdening immovable property was redeemed against the correct dominus;
  - (b) whether the immovable is covered by a valid development permit issued by the Planning Area Permits Board, the Planning Authority, the Malta Environment and Planning Authority or other competent authority or board;
  - (c) whether the immovable is built according to the plans forming part of the development permit;
  - (d) whether it is in conformity with building laws and regulations;
  - (e) whether it is compliant with energy performance or similar regulations;
  - (f) whether it is compliant with any environmental obligation, of whatever nature;
  - (g) whether it is covered by trade and operation licences; and
  - (h) whether it is structurally sound.
- (2) Where the immovable is situated in a building or complex, the provisions of this regulation shall apply mutatis mutandis to the building or complex as a whole and the notary shall not be bound to peruse the terms and conditions applicable to the other units within the same building or complex even if such terms and conditions result from the searches compiled in accordance with these regulations.
- 16. Where the official Public Registry or Land Registry searches refer to an inter vivos act regarding the immovable or to a will affecting the title to such immovable, an authenticated copy of such act and will, including all relevant documents annexed thereto, shall form part of the searches:

Responsibility.

Certain registrations in the Land Registry.

Amended:L.N. 157 of 2018.

Cap. 358.

Development and other permits.

Amended:L.N. 157 of 2018.

Copy of acts and wills.

Provided that an unofficial copy of an act or will obtained from the Office of the Notary to Government shall be deemed to be an authenticated copy for the purpose of these regulations and a notary who relies on an unofficial copy of an act including the documents annexed thereto, or will, obtained from the Office of the Notary to Government, shall be considered to have acted with due diligence for the purposes of the Act and these regulations:

Provided further that after the death of one of the testators, the notary may obtain an authenticated extract of an unica charta will containing all the testamentary dispositions of the deceased testator instead of a complete copy thereof, but the notary shall not be bound to obtain a copy of an unica charta will published before 1 March 2005 unless the succession of both testators has opened. He may at his discretion obtain a declaration made in terms of the proviso to article 68(2) of the Act.

Exemption in view of other professionals.

17. (1) Where the transferee is assisted by another notary, an advocate or legal procurator who has assumed the obligation of examining title, the obligation imposed by article 84C(5) of the Act on the notary publishing the act shall not arise.

(2) The transferee shall make a declaration in this regard, and the provisions of regulation 22(4) shall apply.

Diligence
Amended:
L.N. 157 of 2018.

Cap. 16.

18. (1) A notary who carries out the examination of title in terms of these regulations shall be deemed to have acted with due diligence.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, a notary shall be deemed to have acted with due diligence in examining title if he adheres to the following:

- (a) where the transferor acquired under a title capable of transferring ownership in terms of article 2140 of the Civil Code, the notary compiles the searches on the basis of the ten-year acquisitive prescription, and on the basis of the thirty-year acquisitive/extinctive prescription in all other cases, except those referred to in article 2144 of the Civil Code where he compiles the searches for the prescriptive period of forty years;
- (b) where he compiles the searches on the basis of the ten-year acquisitive prescription, if he presumes good faith throughout the prescriptive period, unless it is manifestly clear to him from the searches that this is not the case;
- (c) where he compiles the searches on the basis of the ten-year acquisitive prescription or on the basis of the thirty or forty-year acquisitive/extinctive prescription, if the notary presumes:
  - (i) continuous, uninterrupted, peaceable, open and unequivocal possession throughout the prescriptive period, unless it is manifestly clear to him from the searches that this is not the case;

- (ii) there has been no cause of suspension or interruption of the prescriptive period, unless it is manifestly clear to him from the searches that there has been such cause.

(3) For the purpose of this regulation "title capable of transferring ownership" means any onerous title, a donation, and a legacy even where the vesting of the legatee with the possession of the immovable has not taken place:

Provided that where there has not been the vesting in possession of the legacy, the notary shall point out this matter to the transferee and explain the meaning and consequence of article 845 of the Civil Code, and he may refer the transferee to take further independent legal advice. Cap. 16.

(4) In his interpretation of the searches compiled in terms of these regulations and in his advice given where the regulations require him to give such advice or where he is of the opinion that he should do so, a notary shall use the professional expertise expected of a member of the notarial profession, as subject to the provisions of the Act, these regulations and the contract of engagement, if any.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the degree of diligence required of a notary when examining title shall not exceed that of a bonus paterfamilias.

19. (1) The contract of engagement shall be in writing and shall contain a description of the services a notary binds himself to provide, the standard of diligence he is to exercise, if it is different from that required by these regulations, any disclaimers and limitations, the professional fees payable and any other matter the parties to the agreement may agree upon.

Contract of engagement.
Substituted:

(2) A notary shall not be precluded from entering into a contract of engagement with the transferee even where he is deemed, in terms of article 84C(5) of the Act, to have been instructed to examine title, and in such case the provisions of sub-regulation (1) shall mutatis mutandis apply.

(3) Where a notary is instructed to provide one of the services mentioned in article 84C(11) of the Act, he shall enter into a contract of engagement with the person so engaging him, and such contract shall contain all the terms and conditions of the engagement and, as far as possible, it shall be modelled on the provisions of sub-regulation (1).

20. (1) After the notary has examined the title:

- (a) where the regulations specifically require the notary to mention any facts which result from the searches; or
- (b) where the notary is of the opinion that the searches cannot be exhaustive in terms of these regulations and/or the contract of engagement and/or the written agreement or declaration referred to in sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3; or Searches.

Substituted:

(c) where he has reservations about the searches, he shall inform the transferee of his findings and his reservations and, where so required by these regulations, he shall advise the transferee on the available courses of action including the possibility of referring the transferee to take further independent legal advice.

(2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), the notary may draw up a report in writing, which report shall be in two originals both signed and dated by him, one of which shall be given to the transferee and the other, which shall be countersigned by the transferee, shall be retained by the notary for five years from the date when it is so countersigned or, if consequent to the examination of title a notarial act is published in terms of article 84C(5) or (6) of the Act, from the date of its publication. The report shall be drawn up for the sole use of the transferee and his legal advisor and persons other than the transferee who rely on the report or use it shall have no right of action against the notary for any act or omission in the examination of title and the relative report, provided that the notary may give his consent in writing to any person other than the transferee to rely on the report or use it under such conditions as appear appropriate to the notary in his discretion.

(3) (a) Payment of the notary's fee for the examination of title and for disbursements made in connection therewith shall be due and payable to him in terms of the Act, its Schedule, these regulations and, where applicable and subject to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, in terms of the contract of engagement, notwithstanding that the final notarial act is not published for any reason.

(b) Until such time as the notary is paid the fee and disbursements referred to in paragraph (a), he shall not be obliged to submit his findings and/or reservations in terms of sub-regulation (1) or the report mentioned in sub-regulation (2), as the case may be, to the transferee.

Limitations of statements.
Substituted:

21. (1) Nothing in any statement made by the notary in whatever form, whether verbal or otherwise, or in any document signed by the notary, or in the report referred to in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 21, including but not limited to the examination and, or review of any additional documents and/or generally any other act that goes beyond the obligations of the notary arising from the Act and these regulations, shall be interpreted in such a manner as to widen the notary's responsibility beyond that established in the Act and these regulations and/or to widen the scope of the notary's findings and/or the report referred to in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 beyond that established in the Act and these regulations, and as subject to the disclaimers and limitations in the contract of engagement and/or in the written agreement or declaration referred to in sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 and/or in the report.

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the notary's responsibility in connection with the examination of title and/or the report and/or the immovable shall, in any case, be limited to the provisions of the Act and regulation 13.

22. (1) The transferee who makes the declaration required in terms of the first proviso to article 84C(5) of the Act shall do so after the notary explains to him the importance and consequence of such declaration, and the transferee shall confirm that the notary has given him such explanation. The notary shall record in the notarial act the transferee's declaration and confirmation.

Statements
Substituted:

(2) Where a notary is exempt from examining title in terms of the second proviso to article 84C(5) of the Act he shall, with reference to the applicable paragraph of regulation 4, explain to the transferee the importance and consequence of such exemption, and the notary shall mention in the notarial act that he has given him such explanation: provided that if the notary explains to the transferee the importance and consequence of such exemption but fails to record such fact in the notarial act, the notary shall not be presumed to have been engaged to examine title.

(3) The transferee shall make the declaration required by regulation 17(2) after the notary explains to him the importance and consequence of such declaration and after the transferee confirms that the notary has given him such explanation. The notary shall record in the notarial act the transferee's declaration and confirmation.
